ABOUT ILSC & ELS

A New Way Forward Together

Message from Paul Schroeder, CEO of ELS

Educational Services, Inc. and ILSC Education Group

ELS and ILSC joined forces in 2022, bringing together over 90 years of combined expertise delivering life-changing learning experiences to international students just like you.

Since 1961, when ELS Educational Services opened its first school in Washington DC, ELS has developed a global reputation for delivering top-quality English programs, and has the most extensive network of on-campus English language programs and University partners across the USA. ILSC Education Group, which opened its first language school in Vancouver, Canada in 1991 and Greystone College in 2002, has built its reputation on offering dynamic, quality language training, career training, and pathways to higher education across Canada, Australia, and in India.

With the merger, we are delighted to bring our shared values, strengths, and experience to offer life-changing study, work and travel adventures to students from around the globe.

Come join us at one of our 20 amazing destinations (and growing) for award-winning, quality language programs, career training, and university admissions. We can't wait to be part of your amazing learning journey!

ELS & ILSC's Shared Mission:

To provide our global community with transformative learning, living, and work experiences by offering the finest language, career, and higher education programs.

WHY CHOOSE ILSC & GREYSTONE COLLEGE

WHY CHOOSE ELS

ILSC & ELS WHY CHOOSE ELS & ILSC?

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

All of our language schools and colleges are committed to academic excellence and have created and developed high-quality programs designed to help you achieve your personal learning and career goals.

ELS, ILSC and Greystone College offer customized curriculum and instructional materials (in partnership with Macmillan Geographic, Oxford University Press, and Macmillan Education), and continually adapt our programs to keep them current and to provide the skills you need to succeed in your future higher education studies and/or career.

Many of our language teachers have taught with us for more than 15 years and hold CELTA, TESOL and other teaching certifications, while our college instructors hold bachelor's degrees and bring recent and relevant, real-world experience to their subject matter.

Over 750 college, TAFE and university partners have recognized the quality of our language training methodologies and offer conditional admissions; some Australian and Canadian partners accept credit transfer from Greystone College, offering advanced placement in diploma and degree programs.

VARIETY OF LEARNING OPTIONS

With ELS, ILSC Language Schools and Greystone College together, students now have more learning opportunities than ever before. Our wide variety of youth and adult programs are designed to support your language learning and career training goals and cater to vacation learners through to serious academic-focused students, and everyone in between!
